Hugo Awards Voting Closes Tonight

If you are a member of this year's Worldcon, Anticipation in Montreal, and have not yet voted for this year's Hugo Awards, it's not too late, but you're running out of time. Voting for the 2009 Hugo Awards closes tonight at 8:59 PM Mountain Standard Time (one minute before midnight Eastern Daylight Time). You can still vote online at www.anticipationsf.ca/English/Hugos if you have your Hugo PIN. If you do not have your Hugo PIN or do not have a computer, stop by the Anticipation table outside the Dealers Room and talk to Kevin Standlee (Look for "Captain WSFS" in his trademark white uniform). You can borrow the computer at the Anticipation table to vote or to email the Anticipation's Hugo Awards administrator to ask for your PIN. Computers are also available in the Business Center. It's okay if you only want to vote in a few categories, but if you're eligible, Anticipation encourages you to vote.
